

This house was built for an ex-Mayor of Kansas City. It has 9 large, light and airy rooms, large attic suitable for pool room or gymnasium, full cemented basement, combination furnace, lot 50x150, east front, street and alley paved, large barn suitable for garage.

Several prominent Negroes have bought in this block, so the owner has decided to sell and in order to make a quick sale has reduced the price from $4,000 to $3,500, $500 down and $20 monthly. An ordinary family could live in four of the rooms and the other five could be rented for enough to make the payments and interest.

Surely opportunity is knocking at your door. Will you continue to pay rent or will you buy? If this is too large, we have several others.

MISSOURI

CHILLICOTHE, MO.
By I. C. U. Know.

Mr. Hawley Hillman, of Denver, Colo., is visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Sawyer Tull died of a complication of ailments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Monroe last Thursday night. Mrs. Alvis, who was with him to the last moment, and Mr. Fred Tull, of Omaha, Neb., who arrived Friday night and took charge of the funeral arrangements, has an attentive ear and a generous heart for their elder brother. The funeral service was held at the A. M. E. Church Sunday afternoon, with Rev. D. W. Oaks officiating. Many years have come and gone since Mr. Tull departed from this city in which he fell asleep, yet a large concourse was present to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased. Peace to his ashes. The revival meeting at the Baptist Church closed last Sunday night. The good attendance was a compliment to the pastor and the loyal members who gave their time, interest and means for its success. Truly do we live to learn to live. Did you say the Young Ladies' Club had no name? Wrong. The Bachelors' Club was entertained by Miss Maggie Estes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Anderson Saturday afternoon. Delicious "cater" were served at the completion of an afternoon of pleasure. Oh, that the young men could attend at least one of the enjoyable clubs! Although a prospective bachelor, I. C. U. Know would not object.

B. Keatts, Percy Swink and V. E. Williams drove over to Bonne Terre to attend a reception in honor of Mr. Madison Townsend given by his sisters, Misses Kelsey and Maud, and brother, Octave Townsend. A very pleasant evening was spent in games, and at midnight a delicious luncheon was served, and all of the guests parted with a reluctance. Mrs. Maggie Kennedy and her daughter, Miss Hortense, went to Bonne Terre Tuesday and consulted a physician to ascertain the cause of Miss Hortense's suffering with her hand. It resulted in having to have an operation performed to remove a broken bone from her hand, which will be done this week. The Ivy Leaf Club was entertained by Miss Sophia Mudd Wednesday, and a delicious luncheon was served and a pleasant time had by all present. The Clover Bee Club was entertained by Mrs. Susie Smith Thursday, and a very pleasant evening was spent; a delicate luncheon was served. Mrs. Laura Kennedy returned Friday from Charleston, where she has been engaged in hair work. Dr. W. Sampson Brooks, pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, of St. Louis, arrived Friday, and on Friday night at the A. M. E. Church he delivered a lecture on "What a Black Man Saw in a White Man's Country" to an appreciative audience. Dr. Brooks portrayed his lecture in a most pleasing manner, and the audience received the conclusion with much regret. A request has already been circulated he should return. Misses Kelsey and Maud Townsend and Mr. Maul, of Bonne Terre, attended the lecture at the A. M. E. Church Friday night. Mrs. Maxie Lyons, of Coffman, arrived Saturday on a visit to relatives. Mrs. Dorothy Overton is convalescing nicely.

Miss Lydia Gibson and Mr. Dick Gant both of this city, were united in matrimony last week. Mr. Waldo Doxey is on the sick list. Miss Lizzie Calcart, pastry cook at the Royal Hotel, spent Monday at the Albany, accompanied by Miss Williams. Mrs. Cora Hardy of Springfield, is receiving instructions from Prof. W. A. Doxey in Turkish Baths. When she returns home, Mr. Hardy will open an apartment in connection with his barber shop for Turkish baths for ladies. Mr. W. Godwin of Kansas City, spent two days here. Mr. Albert Hickman left Tuesday for Kansas City to enter the employ of Mr. Keith. Mrs. Maudie Allen spent a few days here and left for Atchison, her former home. She is a noted Prima Donna and will be accompanied in the Spring abroad by Mrs. Arthur Allen. Miss Addie Frazier, one of the most beloved girls of this city, died at the home of her parents after a brief illness. She was kind, honest, self-respecting and industrious, all of which qualities won the admiration of all with whom she came in contact. She was President of the School Improvement League. The Sun expresses sympathy to the bereaved.

PALMYRA, MO.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith entertained January 28th in honor of their thirty-fourth wedding anniversary. The afternoon was spent in music and conversation. They were the recipients of some very valuable presents. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson, Rev. and Mrs. G. P. Haywood, Mr. J. W. Smiley and daughter, Miss Lavinia. At a late hour they departed declaring Mr. and Mrs. Smith charming host and hostess. Mrs. Grace Davis is still confined to her bed. Mrs. Hattie Johnson is convalescing after being seriously ill for several weeks. Rev. R. L. Deal was in the city the first of the week. The "Calendar" Club of the A. M. E. Church gave an entertainment Friday night.

GRAND EAST OF CALIFORNIA.

Grand Master Crews Receives a Delightful Letter From Grand Master Wilson, of California, an Ex-Missourian Born in the Same Month, Same Year, Same State.

Nelson C. Crews, grand master, 1803 Eighteenth street, Kansas City, Mo.

M. W. Sir and Dear Brother—With grateful appreciation I herewith acknowledge the receipt of your minutes. The transactions of your grand lodge is usually read by me with unusual interest and pleasure, chiefly on account of the Masonic information which they always contain, together with the fact that I myself am an old Missourian, born in Booneville, Cooper County, October 6, 1866. I left there at the age of 13 years, and came West in 1886, and ever since my connection with Masonry I have been greatly interested in the Masonic achievements of the grand old state. I also observe, Bro. Crews, that you first saw the light of day in Howard County, October 15, 1866, just across the river from my old home. So let us "shake," ha, ha, and accept my congratulations upon your elevation to the Grand East, for in my opinion a more deserving honor could not have been more fittingly bestowed, and I firmly believe that the craft under your able leadership will continue to grow and prosper. My best wishes for your success, assuring you that I shall be pleased to hear from you at any time, and trusting that we may become better acquainted, I remain,

Yours fraternally,
G. W. WILSON,
Grand Master.

RUBE FOSTER SLIPS OFF STAGE.

Cleveland, O.—Mr. Rube Andrew Foster, Chicago, who opened his theatrical career in this city last week, attempted to show how he won the game from the White Sox by a slide, ended by falling into the music, and put the entire orchestra out of commission. The instruments that were not broken could not be played because the musicians who played them had to be carried out, as they laughed into hysterics. The audience fairly rolled on the floor, and said they would freely pay for going out of the house, as they were well satisfied. Mr. Foster left the city as soon as he got himself together, for Florida, and joined his ball team.

Those applying must be graduates of some high school and of good moral character.

WORTH WHILE.

Don't ask, "Has the world been true to me?"
But have I to the world been true?
'Tis not what you get, but what you give.
That makes life worth while to you.
'Tis the kind word said to the little child;
As you wiped its tears away;
The smile you brought to a care-worn face
That really lights up your day.
'Tis the hand you clasp with honest grasp
That gives a hearty thrill;
'Tis the good you pour into other lives
That comes back your own to fill.
'Tis the drops you drain from another's cup
That makes your own seem sweet.
And the hours you give your fellow-men
That makes your own life complete.
'Tis the burdens you help another bear
That makes your own seem light;
'Tis the dangers seen for another's feet
That shows your path to right;
'Tis the good you do each passing day
With a heart sincere and true—
By giving the world your very best,
Its best will return to you.
